Coleman Notes

Mrs. J. W. Sadler is visiting friends at Fishburn.

A large number of citizens turned out to the funeral of the late Major Allison on Tuesday afternoon.

The following new additions have been added to the Coleman teaching staff for the approaching term: George McDonald, B.A., of Calgary, principal; Miss Hume, of Watford, Ontario, and Miss McLachlin, of Calgary.

A vast amount of ill health is due to impaired digestion. When the stomach fails to perform its function properly the whole system becomes deranged. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets is all you need. They will strengthen your digestion, invigorate your strength, your bowels, entirely doing away with that miserable feeling due to faulty digestion. Try it. Many others have been permanently cured - why not you? For sale by all dealers.

Sad Drowning Fatality Happenings in and Around Bellevue

Bright Young Life Cut Short In The Presence of His Chums

Richard Wilcox of Frank, is Victim

A very sad drowning accident occurred in town on Wednesday afternoon when Richard Wilcox, eldest son of J. E. Wilcox, was suddenly taken into the other world. He had almost accomplished his feat, but about six feet from the shore something happened and he suddenly sank. No one knows what happened, but probably a cramp of some nature caused the accident.

The boys around tried to get him, but before they could reach him he had sunk for the third time. Then the boys ran for help and the first to reach the place was Walter McFarlane, the loss in Maple Leaf mine, who was on his way to Blairmore. He at once stripped and got into the water. The first time he dove could do nothing, but the second time he succeeded in finding the body and brought it to shore.

Dr. McKay was on hand at once and with several others worked hard to restore life, but it was too late, as life was gone when the body was found.

Great credit is due to Walter McFarlane, who proved himself a hero in the work that he did.

It seems impossible to think of Dick as gone. He has grown up amongst us. Not very long ago he took a position with the Market Co. here. Beginning at the bottom he has climbed up and we all rejoiced with him this year when he was made enter in the local ship. In that position he became a great favorite and no higher tribute need be paid than the words of eulogy spoken by every nationality in town.

We had no better young man in town than Dick, though he was only 17 years; we all thought of him as a man, because he had every element of true manhood. He never allowed himself to be gripped by habits that are ruining other young men. His whole life was pure, and then added to this was a great devotion to his parents and their wants to him.

The body was carried to the Standard church, where awaiting the arrival of Coroner Pinkney, who decided that an inquest was not necessary.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox have the deepest sympathy of the whole community in this, their great bereavement.

The funeral will take place from Knox Methodist church at 10:30 a.m., on Friday, and the remains interred in the Blairmore cemetery.

In Memory of Son

The parents of Clifton Bowerman, who last year was a pupil of Alberta College, and whose death a few months ago cast a gloom over the college have announced that they will grant a yearly scholarship of $25 to the college, to be known as the Clifton Bowerman scholarship, in memory of the young man's career in the college. The scholarship will be based on the general influence for good of the winner, and on general proficiency in the course of studies pursued. Mr. and Mrs. Bowerman reside in Cowley.

Blairmore Locals

The Crow's Nest Flour & Feed Co. and the Blairmore Hardware Co. are each sporting new delivery wagons.

The Hurmia footballers were highly entertained by the Blairmore boys on their visit here Wednesday evening.

The plasterers have commenced their work on the new Cosmopolitan hotel, and with a big gang of men the work will go on hastily.

Laborers are in great demand throughout The Pass at the present time, and prospectors find difficulty in securing the required number.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Hinde, who had been visiting friends in Lethbridge, returned to Blairmore Wednesday and will enjoy another stay with their sons Frank and Ernest before returning to their home in Stillwater, Minnesota.

Happenings in and Around Bellevue

Fred Padgett arrived back to town on Monday night.

Robert Levitt went to North Fork Saturday for a few days' fishing.

W. J. Scott, of Bruce county, Ontario, is visiting his son Walter for a few days.

An Italian laborer received some slight injuries last Thursday while unloading a car of lumber.

Miss Margaret and Gladys Robertson, of Fernie, are visiting in Bellevue, the guests of Miss Ruby Irwin.

Adam Lorimer occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church on Sunday last in the absence of Rev. Mr. Irwin.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Cousins on Friday and left a howling big daughter.

The well-known Bellevue band is not yet satisfied with its work, and has ordered several additional instruments.

Miss Annie Stubbs, of the post office, who had been spending a vacation in other parts, has returned to the wicket.

Ralph Maddison, of Portland, Oregon, is on a visit to his brother William. He expects to remain for a few days' fishing.

The little three-year-old son of Andrew Mackie died on Thursday of 1st week. Interment took place at Hillcrest on Saturday.

Louis Britano and Freddie Bealle, who staged a sixteen-round boxing contest here on July 27th, have agreed for another bout on Labor Day.

The annual meeting of the Standard party was held at the Standard church, where awaiting the arrival of Coroner Pinkney, who decided that an inquest was not necessary.

Master William Cousins went under a slight operation for tonsillitis at the hospital on Wednesday. The operation was performed by Drs. MacKenzie and Bell.

Rev. Robert Irwin is spending a few days with his brother William and sister, Miss Ruby Irwin, prior to taking up his duties as pastor of the Fishburn mission.

The band went to the Rocky Mountain Sanatorium on Sunday, where a sacred concert, was given to a large audience. The boys report having had a good time.

The election of officers for the Bellevue local union, held recently, resulted in the re-election of E. W. Christie, president; James Burke, financial secretary; and the election of Joseph Ellison as treasurer.

The number of men working in the mines is gradually increasing, quite a number having been added lately. The tippie is now working double shift, and the extra shift is in charge of the former tippie boss of Lille.

A Slavonian minor received several injuries on Thursday night shortly after entering on the 11 o'clock shift. One arm was broken and several minor wounds inflicted which will necessitate his laying off for some time.

Eugene Schuur, of Burnett & Lang's staff, has said good bye to his numerous friends in this section of The Pass, and has gone to Calgary to enter upon new duties. Mr. Schuur is one of the best known salesmen in The Pass and we bespeak for him a very bright future.

One of the most common ailments that hard working people are afflicted with is lumbago. Apply Chamberlain's Liniment twice a day and massage the parts thoroughly at each application, and you will get quick relief. For sale by all dealers.

BOWSER'S TONIC.

He Takes the Druggist's Never Failing Joy Drops.

BUT THEY DON'T BRING LAUGH

Instead He Moved to Bad Memories of His Departed Relative and Friends—What Mrs. Bowser Said About It.

By M. QUAD.

Copyright, 1911, by Associated Literary Press.

"MRS. BOWSER," began Mr.

Bowser the other evening

after he had been puffing

away at his cigar for a quarter of an hour, "I was talking with a farmer today, and he said

the solus had come back from the south."

"Yes?"

"That's a sure sign of spring,

isn't it?"

"It's so considered, I believe."

"One needs a tonic in the spring, doesn't he?"

"You can make yourself believe that you need one," she replied as she gave him a sharp look.

"But I don't have to make myself believe. More than a dozen men have told me in the last month that I was all run down. Only yesterday Green was telling me that he never saw a man fall as I had."

"Mr. Green, as you know, is near-sighted and cross-eyed."

"But I have failed, I feel it and know it. There have been days in the last week when I did not feel that I could crawl to the office. On the car

"How often?" asked Mrs. Bowser as the gurgling ceased.

"Every ten minutes till the joyful feelings come and then at longer intervals."

"Do you know the ingredients?"

Trusting the Druggist.

"Not one. The druggist said I could trust it all to him. He has been putting up spring tonics for the last thirty years and has never made one failure.

He put up all of Roosevelt's tonics,

spring and fall, I think I'll take another dose."

More gurgles.

More smacks.

With the addition of a long drawn

u-m-m-m!

Then there was a period of waiting for the joyful to set in. It wasn't on the bottle, and it was five or six minutes after the third dose before Mrs.

Bowser looked up and found Mr. Bowser's eyes brimming with tears.

"Now what on earth's the matter with you?"

"Thinking, Mrs. Bowser—thinking!"

he sobbed.

"But I thought it was a joyful tonic!"

"It is, but the joyful doesn't come until after the sorrowful. Think of my poor father being taken to death by a bull and no one to help him! He cried for help, but cried in vain!"

"You're told me a hundred times

over that he died in his bed of typhoid fever."

"And my poor old mother?" he sobbed.

"She went out to draw an old oaken bucket of water and fell into the well. They didn't find her for a week, and then she was dead. Yes, sir, down that well for seven days, and nobody knows how many times she called for me."

"You forgot that I was there when she died and that the cause was pneumonia."

Poor Aunt Lucinda.

"And there was my Aunt Lucinda,"

continued Mr. Bowser as he rose up and walked the floor and wrung his hands. "At 10 o'clock one morning she was alive and kicking. An hour later she was cold in death. Climbed a cherry tree and came down with a ker-plunk and broke her neck. Mrs. Bowser, why don't you weep with me?"

"Mr. Bowser, I don't believe that druggist put you up a spring tonic, I believe it's straight whiskey."

"And there was my Uncle Joab,"

went on Mr. Bowser as he sat down

THE SLEEPING PORCH FAD.

Jack and Jill

They went up with a will

For Jack's nose

And Jill's nose

Shrivelled dry

It made us

To have to sleep outside!

Thush—by, baby, out in the storm!

What does it matter if baby ain't warm?

When the facts are over with all sleep made,

And I hope of exposure my babe won't have died.

Little Bo-Peep

Has lost her sheep—

The rising moon it wakes her,

And there she lies

With open eyes

Till early sunshine takes her.

Moved out my cot to the next vacant lot

For this "sleep in the open" had I have got.

My fingers and socks on my feet

But long before morning I'm perfectly frozen!

There is a man in our town,

And he is nobody's son

All summer he slept out of doors,

Until it got quite cold

But when he found his pillow wet

He jumped out of his breezy cot

And slept indoors again.

Robert Heort, the noted artist, passed before a landscape at the Philadelphia Academy of Fine Arts and said:

"Dawh, who painted this, has sprung

from humble circumstances to great wealth and eminance.

"Dawh made his first success by Paris. He was dimitted and abashed in these days. When he would say out from his garret in the Rue Vaugrand

to a duchess in the Avenue des

Champs Elysees or a prince's ticket

the Rue de l'Universite his heart would be in his mouth.

"They say that once at a dinner party at Pavlov's, Dawh, the guest of honor didn't open his mouth from the marvelous vertes to the soufflee.

"Finally, when the dessert came on,

the beautiful and elegant hostess

smiled and said:

"Come, dear M. Dawh, do say something!"

She blushed at this challenge, racked his brain and stammered with a beautiful smile:

"Have you noticed, ladies and gentlmen, that this year's new tickets are all green?"—Washington Star.

A Politron.

"Don't you think a man is a fool to try to drown his sorrows in strong liquor?"

"Yes."

"Isn't an awfully bulky habit?"

"Yes."

"Don't you think a man who smokes

is foolish to burn up money in that way?"

"Yes."

"Don't you think it is ridiculous to deny women the right to vote when they have not seen for a number of years

france and ignorant foreigners who have no knowledge of our institutions

are permitted to cast ballots?"

"Yes."

"Don't you think a woman who does a man's work as well as a man could do it ought to have a man's pay?"

"Yes."

"Well, for mercy's sake, why don't you spunk up and argue about something? Haven't you an idea of any kind?"—Chicago Record-Herald

A Beautiful Decline.

Ollie James, the gigantic and genial congressman and senator elect from Georgia, was in conversation the other day with a Washingtonian when the latter made certain inquiries with reference to a mutual friend whom he had not seen for a number of years.

"And how does Colonel Prescott spend his declining years?" he asked.

"Beautifully, sir; beautifully!" answered James. "He has a fine farm, air, and a string of trotters, sir, and a bagel of whisky sixteen years old—and a wife of the same age, sir!"—Saturday Evening Post.

With a Precedent.

"Mrs. Brown, I'm sorry to hear that your little daughter threw a stone through our front window this morning."

"Is that so? That is too bad."

"No, no! I think she ought to be punished."

"Punished? Dear me, I couldn't do that. The dear little thing was only playing 'suffragette'!"—Detroit Free

Press.

GERMANY AND ALSACE.

A Very Suspicious Doll and a Rust

That Saved a Life.

For many years after it was taken over by the Germans the province of Alsace had many difficulties. Every possible precaution was taken to guard against any demonstration of the French national spirit, and, though the children were allowed to learn the language of their ancestors, they were not allowed to be taught it by French instructors. The following instances indicate the extent to which the Government carried its practice of watching the people:

A little girl was seen playing with a doll which was dressed in red, white and blue. The suspicions of the officials aroused, for it certainly was dreadful to see the power of the German empire so boldly threatened.

The child was tracked to its home,

and there the officer learned that the doll was a present. He immediately indicated to the woman who had given

it to the child and obtained the address of the shop where the dangerous plaything had been bought.

It was a modest little establishment, but the officer found it at last and then discovered a very strange thing. The maker and dressed in Leipzig. This was a surprise, but the matter did not arrest him here, and he had the shop

in Leipzig was officially requested to send any more red, white and blue dolls.

The other story is that two Germans were walking one cold day on the banks of a large pond when one of them fell in and could not swim and screamed for aid. The other, who was an officer, did not feel inclined to take so cold a plunge and calmly

watched the struggles of the sinking

man. All at once the man in the water began to sing a song of the "Marseillaise," and the officer jumped in forthwith, for his strict orders were to arrest any person who heard singing that famous song. The unfortunate citizen was imprisoned for eight months, but that was better than drowning.

Not a Beauty.

They were a quaint old couple, and it was evident they had never seen any circus. All the wild things in the cage interested them, but the

It is gratifying to know that the government have not altogether forgotten that there is

Southern Alberta, and that in parts of that section at least

there are a few trails needing patching up.

The Lethbridge Morning

News contains the report that the International Coal &amp; Coke

Co., of Coleman, turned out

310,000 tons of coal and produced 7,000 tons of coke during the month of July. Then there was a shortage of cars and four days lay-off on account of labor troubles which considerably reduced the output. That's going some! There's no need of opening up any more mines.

Public Works Minister

Hon. C. R. Mitchell, minister of public works; John Stocks,

deputy minister of public works, and Duncan Calder inspector of roads and bridges, visited The Pass on Tuesday in the interest of our highways.

They announced their plans for improving the roads from

Macleod to Coleman, and particularly that section which passes over the Frank slide.

Already a gang of men have been set to work on the eastside of the slide and another gang under the charge of A. W.

Robbins have started in on the west side. All along the line men will be engaged for road

building and we may hope soon

to know whereof we trend.

Publications of Depart-

ment of Agriculture

For a number of years, there has been a constant flow of valuable information on agriculture, in its several lines, going out from the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa. In the form of annual reports, special reports, bulletins and circulars hundreds of publications have been issued considerably exceeding a million copies a year, and the stream is constantly enlarging. Until recently each of the several main branches of the department sent out their own publications. An advance step, has lately been taken in the organization of the publications branch which is charged with the sending out from one office of all the publications as is sued. As a guide to the agricultural public as to what publications may be procured, a full list indicating the subjects treated, has been issued in pamphlet form to be sent out to those who apply for it.

Bulletin No. 1 of the Weed and Seed

Edmonton, is available for distribu-

It is an illustrated work on the Com-

descriptions and well executed drawings of the weed found commonly on our farms, particularly those classed as "noxious" under the Noxious

Weed Act, besides which is given the best and latest methods for eradicating each weed under the different systems of farming followed. This bulletin has been prepared by Angus

One of the biggest real estate deals of the past few months was put through by Messrs. Frayer and Sinclair on Saturday last, when the lot adjoining and east of the new Cosmopolitan hotel was sold by them for a cash consideration of $4,000.

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights of this week the Bell-Butler Stock Co. will appear at the Blairmore opera house, and present three comedies, the first "Rena River," Friday night in "Little Lord Fauntleroy" and Saturday night the sensational three-act moonshine comedy "Sandy Bottom." Good vaudeville and specialties between acts. Popular prices—50 and 75 cents.

We have received a copy of the "Wreck of the Titanic" from the publishers, The Maritime Publishing Co., of St. John, N.B. The work is edited by Thomas H. ## Dry Farming Congress

The growing interest in the international Dry-Farmed Products Exposition at Lethbridge, Alta., next October assures the largest exhibition of grains, grasses and root crops, farm machinery and implements ever held in Western Canada, and probably the largest of its kind ever held on the American Continent. Applications for entry forms have been received by Chairman McNiel of the Exposition committee from nearly every quarter of the globe, and advances through diplomatic courses are to the effect that nearly all of the South American countries, Australia, Hungary, Turkey, Russia, and the United States will send exhibits. It is stated that the United States exhibit will eclipse anything that has ever been undertaken by the department of agriculture, while the Dominion of Canada will collect and stage an enormous sized exhibit of the products of the soil from the experimental farms and the farms and the provinces of British Columbia, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta will have exceptionally large and interesting displays.

Throughout Alberta and Saskatchewan great interest is being manifested, and in many sections the farmers have arranged for and carried out this spring and summer a system of plots, by which each man raises something different than his neighbor on one square rod, and pays particular attention to the very best possible to be grown. In Saskatchewan the department of agriculture has been very active in encouraging the farmers to make an extraordinary provincial exhibit, as well as district exhibits, and the Saskatchewan commissioner, Prof. H. N. Thompson has applied for 10,000 square feet of space, and did served notice that his requirements will without doubt exceed this in view of the large number of farmers who are preparing individual exhibits.

A large number from Blairmore attended the ball given at the Rocky Mountain Sanatorium on Friday night by the Commercial Travelers' Association. All report having had a glorious time.

Beard's Camp Notes

There will be a special service in the St. Hyacinth's cathedral on Sunday afternoon. Bishop Tryon will preach on "The Evolution of Atheism." A large attendance is expected, and special seats will be reserved behind the "bars" for members of the Gutzkirk Order.

Jane attended the Telephone Workers' ball at the Blairmore opera house on Wednesday night of last week, and is since suffering from chronic dislocation of the left toe. She lost nine toes through being bitten about two winters ago-by frost. It's easy to make some girls "lose the line." Better try your hand on Jane.

Uncle Ned intended to take in the Lethbridge exhibition; but last week he noticed, according to the Fincher Creek Echo, that the amount of prizes to be offered (18,000) was not worth competing for. The cheap concern that can't afford any more than $18 for prizes. Guess J. C. Dreary, at Cowley, will sell out!

Uncle Ned paid a visit of inspection to the Hog's Back and Blairmore on Saturday. He reports building operations progressing more favorably in Blairmore than in Beard's camp. He claims that the new (Canadian) hotel companies are favorably with the Chateau Laurier, the Waldorf-Astoria and other lodging houses he has seen.

That well-known Blairmore lady who bombarded the view of half the audience at the picture show Saturday night by the presence of a "hat" had better stay home. The "merry widow" was bad, but when the boss of the open house asked her to remove the hat, the rate expanded so that the whole screen was darkened. Jane says she'll never attend the open house again without either an x-ray machine or a pair of McDougall's magnifiers.

During the past week Uncle Ned has gone all through the category of the different religious denominations of the world, and finding nothing he could conscientiously tie to along their lines, has concluded to formulate a religion to suit his own requirements. He proposes to take into the canon of his church all of everything—except religion, and at present is in quest of some kind friend to present him with the necessary paraphernalia, a testament and a cracker box, and as soon as this desire is accomplished will launch his religious bark out on the broad ocean of life. He anticipates a large following and no doubt will cut a wide swath out from the non-church goers of Beard's Camp and nearby towns. As his intentions are to hand his craft towards well irrigated places, where plenty of moisture prevails, he is of the opinion (after having read what the Hillcrest correspondent said about Gutzkirkville) he will be able to reach a vast following at that place. The center site for the location of the church building will be on the Hog's Back at the confluence of the two paths leading to the dark, entangled glens so conspicuous and so much admired by lovers of natural scenery which predominates in Hog's Back hills.

For the information of some who are so doped with evil as to try to shift Beard's Camp around from the south to the east side of Blairmore, your correspondent would like here and now to describe plainly this town's location. Beard's Camp is almost at the foot of the hills, and has been the historic center of all the massacres of the great-grand-grandfathers of the Aborigines and Gutzkirk. The town has a beautiful location. To the east, to the west, to the north and to the south are large and beautiful mountains, deep fjords, fallen timber and proudly standing pines who would dare the axe of the woodman, and in fact old "Bill" himself has never laid the heart to slaughter a single pine that bombarded his right-of-way to the trout fishery further inland. Blairmore is located directly north of us in a picturesque valley, that is not only fanciful for its beautiful vale, river and hills, but also for its production of the most beautiful bushes in this great and golden west. Right here in Beard's Camp can be found a regular Paradise in verdure. Roses are really blossoming all the year round, and, but for the bi-annual visit of the Gutzkirk, is as free from the revolting of the vilest beast as the Hog's Back is of the faler sex. Our town fathers never have to scratch each other's faces over party grudge in connection with municipal affairs. Our streets are never blocked by buildings that occupy twenty feet of land on the right-of-way that really belongs to the public. Our people are not pestered with the catalogs of foreign mail order houses, which strive to assist citizens to break down the power of the local merchant who tries to acquire means and devices that might materialize for the general good and uplifting of the community. We don't have to encourage the existence of unlawful places merely for the graft of coin to strengthen the city's or a private treasury. And in fact we are citizens of the only ideal town south of Blairmore, and we would invite anyone who desires a beauty spot, in every sense of the word, to visit Beard's Camp.

Notes From Burnis

Several parties of ardent anglers left this week to fish the turbulent waters of the North Fork. We hope to see the boys return with a big catch, as the North Fork gets the name of being the best fishing ground around this district.

The Burnis mine operations are beginning to assume their old time aspect. The mines are now working three shifts, and many more men are being started to provide for the increased tonnage desired, and with the building operations that are going on at present, the town certainly looks like a hive of industry. This is the beginning of a new era, and when operations commence on the new screening plant at the mine, business will be increased, and the quality of coal exported will be away ahead of the average of the Pass.

The Order of Gutzkirk met again this week and many and many were the discussions that took place.

One article written by the Hillcrest correspondent was submitted to the meeting. Several members said that they had, owing to heretofore friendly feelings with the H. C., tried to be as fair as they could, but he was trying to talk about, but were absolutely "dashed." The president said that if a person deserved merit he should get it, but the rapid nonsense they referred to, was evidently an emanation from the same unhinged mind that they had referred to in last week's meeting. Good can be drawn from most anything, so the following resolution was passed, for the future guidance of all people:—"That the man who attempts to draw on an imagination, which he does not possess, is on a par with the 'timorin' who capitalizes on a shoe string."

We are pleased to see our friend from Beard's Camp again in the front. We would like to assure him, that although the Order was founded in Burnis, and although we are loyal to our town, we meet together for the good of all people and places. Our official map has placed upon it a circle indicating Beard's Camp, but we are in a quandary through reading the items of our worthy member, and know not what color to paint it.

The order also desire to express their thanks to Jane, and the "onlookers" will save her on deck the night of the "High Jinks."

One member asked why Blairmore should seek players from Hillcrest, a curious question, but satisfactorily explained, when it was shown that if Blairmore won, that Hillcrest would get the cup.

Hillcrest is evidently prepared to do anything to get the cup cheaply. The secretary was advised that Fincher Creek is expected to strike all before long, and the matter of the bridge over the Old Man, is still "in the hands of the department," also that Turtle Mountain might take a tumble some day.

We notice in connection with the small trout catches, Magistrate (Trotman) has made sporadic fly. "What sort of a jam could the $40.00 men spin."

We hear the suggestion that "A Natural Gas Company" propose supplying Blairmore with gas. The undertaking will be on a large scale, the main being two feet six inches in diameter, and six inches larger than the Calgary mains. The supply will be drawn from the quarters of the H. C. for the Blairmore, Lethbridge, Calgary N. T. and Calgary H. T.

The meeting was brought to a close at a late hour, with the recitation of "How Paddy stole the Hope."

Stealing Rides on Trains

Peter McLeish, the former Canadian Pacific conductor, who was arrested by Special Agents Grierson and Mason of the C. P. R. July 18, on a charge of having been larcenized while in charge of a passenger train running from Calgary to Allersbyde was yesterday committed for trial by Inspector Sweetapple. The case will come up for hearing at the next session of a court of competent jurisdiction. Meanwhile he is held in custody.

I. W. Huggill appeared for the prosecution yesterday and M. B. Peacock for the defense.

Monday afternoon five vagrants were taken into custody on the train, were found guilty by Inspector Sweetapple and fined $25 each and costs, with the alternative of spending thirty days in jail.

Through the excellent work of Special Agents Grierson and Mason, the "free riders" of the genus homo on the Canadian Pacific lines have been largely stopped.

Washington, D.C., July 23.—John Mitchell, vice president of the American Federation of Labor, today was sentenced in the District of Columbia supreme court to nine months' imprisonment for contempt of court, growing out of the Buck Stove and Range company case.

An appeal was taken, and $10,000 bail furnished to abide by the decision of the upper court.

In the same case, President Samuel Gompers recently was sentenced to one year and Secretary Frank Morrison to six months.

Board of Trade Meets

Matter of Road Improvements Is Subject of Discussion

The regular monthly meeting of the Blairmore Board of Trade was held in the council chamber on Wednesday night, vice-president W. A. Beebe, presiding. Among those present were A. A. Sparks, L. Duffell, T. B. George, W. A. Malcolm, D. C. Drain, John Angus McDonald, W. J. Bartlett and L. C. Gates. Considerable discussion took place over the programme laid out by the minister of public works and his engineers regarding improvements to the roads, and the following motion resulted:

McDonald - Malcolm - That the vice-president, W. B. Beebe, telephone Mr. Gordon, engineer, Lethbridge, that the members of the Blairmore Board of Trade do not approve of the government spending any more money on the old road between Blairmore and Coleman, as there is a more satisfactory route that is approved by the citizens of both towns, Canby.

Malcolm - McDonald - That the vice-president make arrangements with the president of the Coleman board to hold a joint meeting of both boards at the earliest possible date, for the purpose of considering the plans proposed by the government in regard to the repair of the main highway through this district, and of recommending new routes, etc. Carried.

No other business the meeting adjourned at 10:30.

Blairmore To Have A Closed-in Rink

During the past week a portion of land was purchased from W. A. Beebe, on which it is proposed to erect a skating rink. The walls of the new rink will be sheathed in stanchion and so arranged that the roof may be placed on at a later season. The plans for the new rink are being arranged. They provide for a rink of greater capacity than anything yet constructed in The Crows' Nest Pass and in fact will compare favorably with any rink in Southern Alberta.

The location will be that formerly occupied by the old rink at the corner of State street and Fourth avenue. Work of construction will begin at once, so that lovers of this most popular source of winter recreation will be able to look forward to the promised pleasures of the coming winter.

Arrangements will also be made for a band balcony, which will not in any way interfere with the skating space or the spectators' reserves.

Drowned Near Lundbreck

William Smister, who in company with a boy was fishing in the Old Man River, near Lundbreck on Friday last, accidentally slipped in the water and was drowned. The body was recovered and buried at Cowley on Sunday. Coroner Pinkney was summoned from Blairmore, but as the circumstances surrounding the affair proved that his death was purely accidental, an inquest was not necessary. Smister was about 24 years of age and single.

Sudden Death of Douglas Allison

On Sunday morning last the citizens of Coleman were aroused at the information that Major Allison had been found dead in his room at the rear of the Coleman drug store.

Mr. Allison had retired in apparently good health on Saturday night, and his demise is supposed to have been caused through heart failure.

Major Allison was one of the old timers in the West, having formerly been connected with the Royal North West Mounted Police at Pincher Creek and Macleod, previous to which he spent several years in the Alaskan gold regions. He was a veteran of the Boer war in South Africa, and could always relate tales of interest in connection with that war. Of late he had spent most of his time in this section of the Crows' Nest Pass, and but recently took up his abode in Coleman, having secured living quarters at the rear of the drug store. He was about sixty years of age and single. As far as can be learned Mr. Allison leaves one brother and one sister, both of whom reside in the United States, the former in Kansas, and the latter in some part of New Jersey.

The funeral took place at 3 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon at the Coleman cemetery, the burial being in charge of the Masonic order, of which the deceased was a member, and attended by a large number of friends and acquaintances from Pincher Creek and neighboring towns.

Anniversary Services at Central Baptist Church

Rev. D. M. Thomson, of Fernie, conducted the anniversary services at the Central Baptist church on Sunday last, both services being well attended. On Monday evening a supper was served between the hours of 5:30 and 8 o'clock, when a goodly number, partook of the delicate edibles provided by the ladies of the church. At 8 o'clock a programme was rendered, consisting of songs, recitations and speeches, the following being prominent on the platform:

Rev. McLean Beaton, of First Presbyterian church; D. M. Thomson, of Fernie Baptist church; W. T. Young, of Knox Methodist church, Frank, and the local pastor Rev. J. F. Hunter, B.D.

All the addresses were forcible and to the point, bearing upon the field and opportunity for labor as is existing today in the mining towns of Southern Alberta.

The members of Central Baptist church were accorded congratulations upon the success that has attended their efforts up to this their third anniversary, and of possessing such a beautiful edifice as a place of worship.

How Lewis Turned Turtle At Macleod

Drummers' Convention

Hundreds Make Merry At Rocky Mountain Sanatorium

On Friday last the Rocky Mountain Sanatorium was the scene of considerably more than the ordinary routine of life and excitement, it being on that day that the exponents of commercialism from all parts of Southern Alberta (principally Lethbridge) met for their annual convention and repast.

Considerable credit is due the management of this popular resort for the manner in which the hotel was decorated and plans arranged for the convenience and comfort of the visitors.

About seventy ladies and gentlemen from all points in Southern Alberta, together with about one hundred from Frank and Blairmore congregated at the hotel on Friday night, where a grand ball was given under the auspices of the Commercial Travellers' Association, and the gayest of gay was the manner in which everyone appeared. The Macleod orchestra rendered pleasing music throughout the night. A sumptuous luncheon was served at midnight, and dancing was kept up until 3:30 a.m. Saturday.

Saturday's programme was to have included a tennis tournament in the afternoon from 2 to 6, but the presence of rain showers made it advisable to cancel this part of the affair. A double tennis court had been prepared and in readiness, and the management of the hotel had arranged to award $100 in ladies' and gents' prizes. However, despite the presence of the unweelcome showers the day was not a lost one, by any means and all those who attended and were disappointed on account of the showers outside were made merry and welcome in the most hospitable manner by the management, patrons and ladies inside, and singing, games and all sorts of amusement helped the hours to pass merrily away.

Sunday was observed in a fitting way, the principal feature being the closing banquet in honor of the Commercial Travellers' Association. No finer spread has ever before dazzled the eyes and tempted the tastes of the inhabitants of any hostelry in The Pass, and needless to say lack of justice was a nil feature. At the same time beautiful musical renditions were given by the Macleod orchestra and the Bellevue band. All were loud in their praise of the excellent work of the latter, for this famous orchestra seemed to literally fill the great structure and thrill the assemblage with sweet strains.

Space will not permit us to give in detail the names, etc., of the guests present, but elsewhere in this issue is a partial list of those in attendance from outside sections.

Most of those from distant points returned to their destinations by Sunday night's train. Hundreds of citizens of Frank and Blairmore were at the Frank station to bid the party adieu! At the station prior to the train's departure the Belle-
